Men when they teach, learn

Mission Statement

Those who instruct learn what they teach. TNT seeks to apply this principle while increasing appreciation and enthusiasm for the performing arts in the community. Performers and audience members alike gain insights and knowledge through TNT's principle based productions and engaging, educational workshops.

TNT participants develop confidence and poise in performance while strengthening people skills as they participate in activities that are "virtuous, lovely and of good report" in a fun, wholesome, uplifting setting with positive, proactive peers. Every effort is made to establish a supportive environment where opportunities to discover and develop talents abound.

TNT's high standards of conduct cultivate responsible youth.
